Old Windsor United Charities

Conflict of Interest Policy

The trustees of Old Windsor United Charities have a legal obligation to act in the best interests of the charity and in accordance with its governing documents.

A conflict of interest is any situation in which a trustee's personal interests or loyalties could be seen to prevent the trustee from making a decision only in the best interests of the charity. The perception that there is a conflict of interest can damage the charity's reputation. Trustees must be prepared to respond appropriately to any suggested conflict of interest, whether accurate or not, in order to protect the reputation of the charity. They must ensure that potential conflicts of interest are identified and addressed effectively. All decisions affecting the charity must be transparent and recorded to show that they have been made in the best interests of the charity.

Conflicts are likely to arise if:

- there is a potential financial or other measurable benefit directly to a trustee, staff member or volunteer or indirectly through a connected person
- a trustee, staff member or volunteer's duty to the charity may conflict with a duty or loyalty they owe to another organisation or person.

A trustee, staff member or volunteer's loyalty to the charity could conflict with his or her loyalty to:

- the body that appointed them to the charity
- the membership or section of the charity that appointed them to trusteeship
- another organisation, such as their employer
- another charity of which they are a trustee
- a member of their family
- another connected person or organisation
- their religious, political or personal views.

- 1.5 The Clerk to the Trustees will be responsible for maintaining the register of interests.

2 Retention and storage of personal data

All personal data collected as part of this policy will be stored securely at all times, in accordance with Old Windsor United Charities data protection policy.

 - Declare the interest at the earliest opportunity
 - Withdraw from discussions and decisions
- 3.2 The Clerk to the Trustees will take care to ensure that minutes or other documents relating to the item presenting a conflict are removed for the person facing the conflict.
- 3.3 If the board of trustees has to make a decision as to whether a trustee, staff member or volunteer has a conflict of interest the affected person will be excluded from the discussion. Remaining trustees will consider the issue and make an appropriate decision.
- 3.4 All decisions about a conflict of interest will be recorded by the Clerk to the Trustees and reported in the minutes of the meeting. The report will record:
 - the nature and extent of the conflict
 - an outline of the discussion
 - the actions taken to manage the conflict
